Who Can Apply for No-Cost or Low-Cost programs in LA County?
Patients must be a Los Angeles County resident and provide acceptable proof that you live in Los Angeles County (ID and proof of address or statement certifying homelessness) and must have medical costs that Medi-Cal, Medicare, private insurance or other benefits won't pay.
What is income at 138% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL)? Income is based on your family size. For 2019, 138% FPL monthly income is $1,437 for a family of one; $1,945 for two; $2,453 for three; $2,962 for four; $3,470 for five; $3,978 for six; $4,487 for seven; $4,995 for eight; $5,503 for nine; $6,012 for ten. For families larger than ten, add about $509 per person. For pregnant women count the woman and the number of expected babies. A county worker will see if your income qualifies for these programs and the amount you must pay. Yes, non-LA County residents may receive a discount on their cost for care at LA County hospital under the Discount Payment Plan if they have income at or under 350% FPL. Only LA County residents may get no-cost medical care.
